Sale total: £31,964

This sale quite clearly reflected the current difficult state of the world market in all the varied aspects of Doulton, Beswick, Wade etc. In particular it is worth noting how fickle and worthless any price guides are at the moment - ignore them ALL!

Top seller on the day was Reggie bunny (D 6025) @ £1,345 - which is a very good price although it appears quality does seem to be bucking all other trends?

Herewith a realisation resume:

Character Jugs

Many fared quite badly given the overall current selectivity of the collector market. Larger ones did at times, perform OK, but the miniatures well and truly flopped with so many fetching just £12 apiece. However, of note: all white Bacchus (hair colour trials to hair) £516. Captain Hook £215. Pendle Witch £145. Postman D 6801 £135.

Figures

As with most categories better/ rarer examples fared best: Harlequin HN 2737 £625. Auctioneer HN 2988 £140. Kate Hannigan HN 3088 £135. Autumn Breezes £135. The Captain HN 2260 £125.

Wild animals/ birds

Lots 30 & 31 were illustrated wrong way round - always stick with the words - the one with flowers on the base (some petals damaged) £70, the other (mint) £135. Fox, model 2348, (much admired and lovingly handled during previewing) £305. Swan & 2 cygnets £90. Cocker Spaniel, model 1138, £170.

Kingsware

Tony Weller (Queensware) £585. Mr Pickwick (Queensware) £538. Coachman figural £527. Here's A Health £325. Captain Phillip £225.

Farm Animals

Hereford Calf, model 854, in the exceptionally rare roan colourway but with 2 repaired feet ... £450. Foal, model model 1085, rare grey gloss, £360. Huntsman, model 1501, £250. Guernsey Cow, 1248A, £315. Ayshire bull, 1454B, £235. Hereford bull, 949, £180. Foal lying (1 rocking horse grey, leg damaged) £170. Kick Start (Thelwell) £145 + £112.

Stoneware

Cordiform fountain ink £1030. Glass topped Isobath ink on wooden base £585. Mark Marshall chameleon model (rim chips) £585. Artware water filter with lid, no tap, £450. Toby XX jug £270. Armchair toby ash pot, very rare, bargain £225.
